DEATH TO THE SQUISHIES!

RATCHET'S IN A RUT. He's had it up to his arsenal with robots sucking up all the glory while he does the hero work and gets zilch credit. He's being treated like chopped asteroid while Clank gets the Holo-wood star treatment for his role in that silly Secret Agent Clank T.V. show. Even the President of the Galaxy is acting like some star-struck autograph hound.

Clank's a great guy, but come on – He spends most of his time as a backpack!

And what about those Galactic Ranger bots that are supposed to be guardians of universal peace? Well special thanks to the wiseguy who programmed in their cowardice feature!

Who hurts real pain when some one-eyed Tyrranoid buries its teeth into live fur? Ratchet, that's who, so how about a little respect!

On top of all this robot worship, there are some nasty rumors shooting around the galaxy that don't sound too good for anybody with blood pumping through their veins. The word "squishy" is being used as an insult to describe living things. What? Being alive isn't cool anymore?

And now the tube is showing scenes of Ratchet's home planet Veldin under attack by Tyrranoid raiders. The rumor is they are bankrolled by Dr. Nefarious, a flesh-hating robot supremacist, who is plotting to obliterate all living things. He convinced a gullible warrior race called the Tyrranoids to become his allies in destroying all organic life.

Tyrranoids have no concept of irony and thus don't realize that, being organic themselves, Nefarious plans to annihilate them as soon as they complete his dirty work. Right this moment, a huge Tyrranoid attack squadron is looting the streets of Veldin, Ratchet's home planet. Ratchet and Clank will have to assemble the deadliest arsenal of weapons the galaxy has ever known if they have any hope of defeating the arch-supervillain Dr. Nefarious.

So Ratchet and Clank have to put a stop to this robo-felon. Any more good news?

The good news is that Ratchet and Clank's back will be covered by a crack team of space commandos. The bad news is they will really be protecting the meatloaf back in the command ship cafeteria.

No worries. Ratchet's in an edgy mood and ready for whatever sticks its nose around the next moon. Guess it's time to visit Veldin and deliver a few well-placed powder burns. Maybe some intergalactic devastation will cheer him up. Ratchet's got a shipload of new weapons and is just itching to uncork on the next smartass alien who shows a little too much attitude.

THE MAIN MENU

NEW GAME

One player joins Ratchet & Clank as they blast their way through the Galaxy. This is a mission to save freedom-loving organics everywhere from the squishy-squashing Dr. Nefarious. If you liked the warfare from Ratchet & Clank's first two adventures, squeeze off a few million rounds from here.

MULTIPLAYER

Play split-screen Multiplayer offline or, for a whole new experience, take the devastation online!

ONLINE PLAY

Battle with up to seven other players in Siege, Deathmatch and Capture the Flag games. Before you can play Ratchet & Clank: Up Your Arsenal, you must have a valid network configuration saved to a memory card (8MB) for PlayStation 2. If you have not yet created a network configuration, there is a Network Configuration utility available on this disc. See "Creating a Network Configuration" on page 27 for instructions.

Note: You can also use the Network Adaptor Start-up Disc that is included with your Network Adaptor to create a network configuration.

LOCAL PLAY

Up to four players compete in split-screen battles on one PlayStation 2 computer entertainment system. Play Siege, Capture the Flag or Deathmatch. See "Local Multiplayer Games" on page 41.

MULTIPLAYER HELP VIDEO

Before he vanished (after that Fizzwidget episode), Captain Qwark recorded a short video explaining Multiplayer games and Siege Mode.

THE SINGLE-PLAYER GAME

Dr. Nefarious, an evil flesh-hating robot, is plotting to obliterate all living things. He convinced the Tyrranoids to become his ally. That's dumb because they are flesh and blood (though very putrid and ugly) and Nefarious will want them dead too, eventually. Right this moment, a Tyrranoid force is looting the streets of Veldin, Ratchet's home planet. Ratchet and Clank must stop Dr. Nefarious by blowing everything to pieces using as many different weapons and gadgets as possible.

RATCHET & CLANK IN BATTLE

Most of the time you control Ratchet while Clank rides on his back giving support. When certain missions require Clank's robotic skills, the two split up and you control Ratchet or Clank separately.

THE SINGLE PLAYER GAME SCREEN

Tap the or button to activate the display.

NANOTECH (HEALTH) LEVEL

Nanotech uses Nanobots, micro-robots that heal damage inside living beings and robots too. The Nanotech level shows your ability to endure attacks and survive. Take a hit in combat and your Nanotech level drops. Run out of Nanotech and you are a goner.

- Watch the Nanotech Level Meter below the number. When the meter fills, your maximum Nanotech level increases.
- Find Nanotech in specially designed crates. Break them open to regain partial health.
- Once Ratchet finds the item called Nano-Pak, a device that lets him carry more Nanotech, he'll be able to see how much Nanotech it contains in a small meter next to his Nanotech Level Meter.

Note: During Online Siege games, you can also restore lost Nanotech by standing on Nanotech Pads inside your base (if your base defenses are active).

CURRENT WEAPON AND AMMO

See the icon for your currently equipped weapon, ammo remaining, max ammo and the Weapon Power Meter here. When the Weapon Power Meter fills, your weapon is upgraded. See "Weapon Upgrades" on page 17.

WEAPON TRI-SELECT

Your current weapon and last two weapons used appear in the Tri-Select menu. Switch between these three weapons by tapping the Ⓐ button. This is faster than the Quick Select.

WEAPON/GADGET QUICK SELECT

Press and hold the Ⓐ button to display the Quick Select. Press the left analog stick or directional buttons to select the weapon or gadget you want to use, then release the Ⓐ button to equip that item.

To open the Gadget Quick Select, hold the L1 button while the Quick Select is open (L1 in Lock-Strafe or First Person modes.)

Note: See "The Quick Select" on page 15 for details. See "The Pause Menu" on page 25 for directions on how to assign weapons and gadgets to your Quick Select System.

BOLT COUNT

This shows the number of bolts you currently have. Use bolts to buy ammo and additional weapons.

RADAR SCOPE

The radar tracks enemy forces (red dots), friendly forces (blue dots) and mission objectives (green dots). The top of the scope points in the direction the camera is facing. In Single Player games the radar scope only appears during Battlefield Missions.

JUMPING, HELI-PACK AND THRUSTER-PACK

You can just press the X button for a quick short jump. But to put some bump in your jump, Clank's Heli-Pack and Thruster-Pack deliver increased airtime. Heli-Pack is the default. If you want rocket power instead of helicopter power, change to the Thruster-Pack (selected from the Gadget screen on the Pause Menu). Both function in the same way.

- In Third Person Camera/Control mode: From a standing position, hold the L1 button and press the X button to boost a normal jump for extra height.
- Press the L1 button + X button while running to perform a long jump.
- If you are in Lock-Strafe or First Person Camera/Control mode, substitute the L1 button with the R1 button to perform the same moves.
- Glide by holding down the X button during a long fall.

PLAYING AS CLANK

Sometimes the robot rules. When playing as Clank, you have the advantage of controlling Gadgetbots, deadly little machines that do Clank's bidding. Find them in special pods.

Once activated they follow Clank's orders:

Press and hold the Ⓐ button and select an order with the left analog stick. Release the Ⓐ button to give the order. You can command them to follow you, attack enemies, or to enter "Bot Ports". Ordering the Gadgetbots to enter Bot Ports will allow you to open force fields. You can also command them to wait where they are.

YOUR MISSIONS

Each destination has one or more missions you must complete. Select MISSIONS on the Pause Menu to view the missions for your current location.

Note: See the "Pause Menu" on page 25.

You must complete some missions before additional ones appear. Make a return trip to planets and pick up any missed missions at a later time.

SPECIAL MISSIONS AND CHALLENGES

Kick tail in these demanding missions. Win huge bolt rewards and vital gadgets or unlock special features.

Battlefield Missions – Blow away a huge force of attackers on the ground or from the air. These fights take place on a single battlefield.

Arena Challenges – Fight against near impossible odds as you battle a swarm of skilled warriors plus one or two gargantuan gladiators to win Bolts or other special prizes. The biggest and toughest opponents will have Health Meters. Some arena challenges depend on acrobatic skill instead of firepower.

Giant Clank Battle – Clank goes huge while delivering a wrecking-ball punch, hurling bombs and firing missiles.

USING WEAPONS

AUTO-TARGETING AND MANUAL AIMING

Aim weapons in different ways. Some weapons only require you to point Ratchet in the direction of the target before firing. Others require more precision.

AUTO-TARGETING

The N60 Storm, for example, has an auto-targeting feature where the targeting reticle jumps over the best target when you are in Third Person Mode. Fire and you are virtually guaranteed a hit. Disclaimer: Gadgetron does not guarantee its auto-targeting feature for nervous or jumpy targets.

MANUAL AIMING

For precise manual targeting, press and hold the LS button and use the left analog stick to aim the weapon. When the reticle turns red, you have accurate aim on the target.

Note: While in First Person or Lock-On modes, press and hold the LS button.

THE QUICK SELECT SYSTEM

When you gotta hit 'em where it hurts, your Quick Select System delivers by getting your trigger-happy fingers around that favorite weapon fast...Gadgets too. Quick Select is a menu that contains weapons and gadgets you choose. As you pick up new weapons, they appear in the Quick Select. The Quick Select system has two rings, each holding up to eight weapons and gadgets. Hold L1 while the Quick Select is open to access the Quick Select.

Note: While in First Person or Lock-Strafe modes, press the RB button to access Quick Select.

CUSTOMIZE IT (SINGLE PLAYER ONLY)

2. Press the L1 or R1 buttons to highlight one of the eight slots on the Quick Selector where you want to place a weapon or gadget.
3. Press the left analog stick or directional buttons to highlight the weapon or gadget you want to put in that slot and press the X button to place it.
4. Repeat for each slot you want to fill.

5. Press the Q button to toggle between the Quick Select and Alternate Quick Select, so you can assign up to 16 weapons and gadgets between the both.

Note: You can also add camera modes to the Quick Select menu so that you can quickly switch between First Person and Lock-Strafe, for example.

USE QUICK SELECT IN BATTLE

Press and hold the Q button to display Quick Select. Press the left analog stick or directional buttons to select a slot containing the weapon or gadget you want to use, then release the Q button to equip that item. You are ready to blast away! Some special weapons/gadgets stay in effect even after you "Quick Select" a different weapon.

THE WEAPONS SCREEN

To see the exact status of the weapons you have, get a description or select the weapon from here. Press the PS button and open the Weapons Screen from the Pause Menu. Press the left analog stick or directional button to highlight the weapon. To select the highlighted weapon for battle, press the X button. Then press the PS button to return to the game.

AMMO – This shows shots remaining and maximum number of shots for the weapon.

LV – This is the upgrade level of the weapon.

POWER – The power number is the damage potential of the weapon. Maximum is 10,000.

NEXT – Shows how much experience the weapon has, and how much more is needed to upgrade it to the next level.

STRAFING WITH WEAPONS (Third Person mode only)

Use strafe controls to keep facing the enemy during a firefight or attack. This battle tactic will save your hide in many situations, so learn it fast and use it often: While running, press and hold the L1 or R1 button, then fire your weapon.

WEAPON UPGRADES

Gadgetron weapons grow with you. Power upgrades are different depending on whether you are in Single Player or Online games.

SINGLE PLAYER UPGRADES

Each weapon is capable of four upgrades. Check the Weapon Power Meter under the weapon icon on the game screen. When it maxes out, your weapon upgrades to the next version. The first three are V2, V3 and V4. Upgrades for each new version might be increased firepower, more ammo or enhanced functionality. A final monster upgrade changes the weapon name while boosting its power to a lethal maximum.

ONLINE UPGRADES

After three kills, your weapon will upgrade. Upgrades could include increased firepower, higher firing rate, more ammo and/or larger damage radius. Upgraded Weapons display a blue icon in the Quick Select.

Note: Defeat an Online player who is holding an upgraded weapon and take that weapon by grabbing the player's weapon pack.

THE WEAPONS

Check out these highlights from our Gadgetron Catalogue just to kick-start your military mind. We supply the finest weaponry for any engagement from a simple firefght to outright intergalactic obliteration. And the more you use your Gadgetron weapon, the more powerful it gets. What value! But they can be captured and fall under the control of either Red or Blue forces. Win control of Nodes to aid in your campaign to invade the enemy base. To win a Node, destroy its defenses. Then walk up to the bolt crank at the base of the Node. Press the Ⓐ button to place your Omnipranch on the bolt crank. Use the left analog stick to turn the bolt crank until it changes to your team color. Your character will disengage from the bolt crank if attacked.

If your forces control a Node:

- Defenses it had when you attacked respawn and fight for your side. This includes Troopers, Drones, Vulcan Turrets, and Pop-Up turrets.
- It produces weapons upon capture and supplies vehicles as long as you control it.
- When using the Map, captured Nodes will show nearby enemy forces.

CAPTURING WEAPON PACKS

Each time a player falls in battle, a weapon pack will appear where he or she fell. It contains all of the weapons the player held before being defeated. An opposing player can grab your weapon pack after you die and reap the spoils. If a player with an upgraded weapon dies, the upgraded weapon goes into their weapon pack, so whoever picks up that weapon pack gets an extra advantage.

Note: The Charge Boots are not included in the Weapon Pack.

USING VEHICLES ONLINE

Find both land and flight vehicles throughout the game. One or two players can jump in a vehicle and unleash battlefield destruction. But look out for Vulcan Turrets! They are designed to attack any vehicle with extreme accuracy and firepower.

TURBOSLIDER

Use this all terrain vehicle for land attacks. The Turbo Slider features a machine gun turret and great acceleration. Rear wheel turning and bear claw tires keep it glued to the ground through the tightest turns.

HOVERSHP

Deliver devastating aerial bombing and rocket attacks or battle other hoverships in mid-air duels.

CO-OP VEHICLE CONTROL

All vehicles can be operated by two teammates simultaneously to gain access to a vehicle's more devastating potential. To activate this feature, two players enter the vehicle. The first person in becomes the driver/pilot. In a Hovership, the first person to enter

- When you are defeated and the Map appears, you can select this Node as a respawn point. Press the directional buttons or the left analog stick to select the Node from the Map, then press the Ⓐ button to respawn at the selected Node.

PADS

Find colored pads with several useful functions throughout the battle zone. Step or jump on these.

Weapon Reload Pad – Step on this red pad to reload all weapons (found only in base interiors).

Nanotech Health Pad – This Light Blue pad returns your Nanotech health to maximum (found only in base interiors).

Entry/Exit Pads – Step up on the Green pad and press the Ⓐ button to enter or exit base interiors.

Jump Pads – Stand on this blue triangular pad and press the ▢ button to get a huge altitude boost for reaching high places.

USING WEAPONS ONLINE

Find weapons in crates. Crates are labeled with an icon so you can see what weapon is inside. Crack open the crate with your Omnipranch, shoot it, or run over it with a Turbo Slider or Charge Boots.

also controls the primary weapon. In a TurboSlider, the first person shoots a rapid-fire cannon. The second person to enter a vehicle operates the more devastating features of that vehicle. Using a vehicle with one person severely limits its firepower/usefulness.

Warning: If your vehicle gets blown up with you inside, you're dead too. For a well-timed escape, press the Ⓐ button when you see smoke coming from your vehicle.

Note: See the "Controls" for info on controlling each vehicle.

DRONES

Drones are small hovering attack robots that operate in a four-unit squad. Take them on combat missions or place them to defend strategically important areas.

- To activate a team of Drones: Stand next to them, and press the Ⓐ button. They will follow you and provide cover fire.
- To position Drones for guard duty: Press the ▢ button + Ⓐ button to display the Gadget Quick Select. Select SET TO DEFEND. The Drones will remain in position as sentries to attack intruders. To make them follow you again, get close and press the Ⓐ button.

THE MULTIPLAYER GAME OVER SCREEN

When the Red or Blue Base Control Module is destroyed, victory is declared and the Game Over Screen appears.

The following stats for each player appear:

- Kills – How many players this player personally killed.
- Deaths – How many times the player died during the game.
- Nodes – How many Nodes this player activated for his or her team.
- Base Damage – How much damage a player inflicted on the enemy base.

At the bottom of the screen, the option Play Again appears. If the host selects this, they will be taken to the Create Game screen to setup a new game. The other users in the game will be given a message telling them they can join the game once it's created by pressing the ○ button.

VOICE COMMUNICATION AND THE ONLINE HEADSET

Use the USB Headset (for PlayStation®2) or SOCOM Headset for voice communication with other players. Speak with a normal voice to chat with fellow players, taunt your opponents or coordinate battle plans with your teammates.

- During play you can only communicate with your teammates. Enemy players will be unable to hear you.
- All players from both teams hear your transmissions on any staging or results screen.

ONLINE TEXT CHAT

You can use Text Chat wherever you see the SEND CHAT MESSAGE option. Select SEND CHAT MESSAGE to open up the Virtual Keyboard and enter your message. Select DONE or press the ○ button when your message is composed to transmit it.

LOCAL MULTIPLAYER GAMES

Two to four players can compete in split-screen showdowns. Local Multiplayer gameplay is the same as the Online game but you play on one PlayStation®2 computer entertainment system and television. An internet or network connection is NOT used. See Playing the Online Games on page 35.

Press the ↔/↔ on the directional pad to switch between profiles that are stored on the Memory Card (8MB)(for PlayStation®2) inserted in slot 1.
